Attleboro Housing Authority (AHA) 5-Year PHA Plan: 2020-2024

Goals & Objectives

1. Maintain a Standard Performer SEMAP Designation. Achieve a High Performer SEMAP Designation, as long as funding from HUD is maintained or increased.
2. Complete an update to AHA's Section 8 Program Administrative Plan.
3. Increase assisted housing choices as follows:
 - Continue to analyze whether voucher holders have experienced difficulties finding housing outside of areas of poverty and minority concentration;
 - Increase payment standards in any part of AHA's jurisdiction as a result of this analysis;
 - Promote portability and absorb vouchers whenever possible;
 - Conduct outreach to potential landlords; and
 - Provide mobility counseling by working with applicants and program participants in their housing search activities and provide assistance with owner negotiation of rental unit pricing.
4. Expand assisted housing by continuing to issue vouchers to applicants and acquiring additional funding in order to increase the number of program participants. Currently, the Attleboro Housing Authority (AHA) only receives enough HUD funding to maintain a voucher leasing rate of approximately 93% of the baseline number of units on the Annual Contributions Contract. The AHA will continue to explore ways to obtain additional program funding and create additional affordable housing opportunities, which may include applying for and adding special purpose or targeted funding Vouchers to AHA's HCV program portfolio.
5. Continue to further develop community partnerships that provide or attract supportive services to improve employability through service education or training for participant families.
6. Continue to ensure Equal Opportunity and further fair housing. Undertake affirmative measures to ensure access and to provide a suitable living environment for families living in assisted housing who fall under the Federal and State/Local protected classes. Undertake affirmative measures to ensure accessible housing to persons with all varieties of disabilities regardless of unit size.

4-III.C. SELECTION METHOD

The Attleboro Housing Authority must describe the method for selecting applicant families from the waiting list, including the system of admission preferences that the Attleboro Housing Authority will use [24 CFR 982.202(d)].

Local Preferences [24 CFR 982.207; HCV p. 4-16]

The Attleboro Housing Authority is permitted to establish local preferences, and to give priority to serving families that meet those criteria. HUD specifically authorizes and places restrictions on certain types of local preferences. HUD also permits the Attleboro Housing Authority to establish other local preferences, at its discretion. Any local preferences established must be consistent with the PHA plan and the consolidated plan, and must be based on local housing needs and priorities that can be documented by generally accepted data sources.

Attleboro Housing Authority Policy

The Attleboro Housing Authority will use the following local preferences:

1. The Attleboro Housing Authority will offer a preference to any family that has been terminated from its HCV program due to insufficient program funding.

The Attleboro Housing Authority is prohibited from assisting families over either its annual baseline number of Vouchers per its approved Annual Contributions Contract (ACC) with HUD, or its Annual Housing Assistance Payments (HAP) Budget Authority from HUD. In the event that the Attleboro Housing Authority's Annual HAP Budget Authority is reduced to an amount that will no longer support the number of families currently participating in the program, the Attleboro Housing Authority shall determine the number of families that must be terminated from assistance due to the lack of adequate funding from HUD. The Attleboro Housing Authority shall follow the steps outlined in this section in terminating assistance to families.

The Attleboro Housing Authority shall terminate the HAP contract on behalf of a family based upon the family's date of admission to the program. For this purpose, the Attleboro Housing Authority shall consider the family's original lease date of admission to the HCV program. The family that was first admitted to the program, according to their lease date, shall be the first to have the HAP contract terminated due to the lack of adequate funding from HUD. The Attleboro Housing Authority will refer families where the HAP contract on their behalf has been terminated to appropriate agencies to assist in locating available housing.

2. The Attleboro Housing Authority will offer a preference to any family that lives within the city limits of the City of Attleboro, or has at least one family member who works, or has been hired to work, within the city limits of the City of Attleboro.

HUD regulations state that a residency preference must not be based on how long an applicant has resided or worked in a residency preference area.

3. The Attleboro Housing Authority will offer a preference to any family who is determined to be homeless.

For the purpose of determining eligibility for this preference, the Attleboro Housing Authority defines a homeless applicant as an applicant who:

- a. Is without a place to live or is in a living situation in which there is a significant, immediate, and direct threat to the life and safety of the applicant or household member whose situation would be alleviated by placement in a unit of appropriate size, and
- b. Has made reasonable efforts to locate alternative housing, and
- c. Has not caused or substantially contributed to the safety or life-threatening situation, and
- d. Has pursued available ways to prevent or avoid the situation by seeking assistance through the courts or appropriate administrative or enforcement agencies, and
- e. Is displaced from a residence in which the applicant household lived for at least nine (9) months out of the year.

The Attleboro Housing Authority will use the following system of preferences:

- The Attleboro Housing Authority will maintain a separate waiting list for any families who have been terminated from its HCV program due to insufficient funding. These families will be selected in the order in which they were terminated from the Attleboro Housing Authority's HCV program, and will be selected before all other families on the waiting list. Once this list is exhausted, the Attleboro Housing Authority will then select families that qualify for either Local Preference #2 or Local Preference #3.
- Applicant families will receive one (1) point if they qualify for either Local Preference #2 or Local Preference #3; preference points are not compounded. The maximum number of points an applicant can receive is 1. All applicants with 1 preference point will be selected in order of the date and time of application. Applicants with no preference points will be selected in order of the date and time of application, and only after all applicants with 1 preference point have been selected.

Attleboro Housing Authority (AHA) 5-Year PHA Plan: 2020-2024

Progress Made Toward Goals from Prior 5-Year Plan

During the 2015–2019 5-Year period, the AHA achieved the following milestones:

1. The AHA increased the number of assisted families on the AHA's Voucher program from 95 to 177 as a result of receiving a new Enhanced Voucher award from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).
2. The AHA completed a successful transition in leadership as the long-time AHA Executive Director retired in 2018 and a new Executive Director was brought on board to lead the AHA.
3. The AHA transitioned to a new contractor for conducting HQS inspections. This has allowed the AHA to provide an increased level of customer service to the landlords and families. In addition, this transition has allowed the AHA to achieve full program compliance in this area of program administration.
4. The AHA added a part-time clerk staff position for the HCV program department.
5. The AHA completed the transition process to a new in-house management and accounting software system. This change is allowing the AHA to operate at a higher level of efficiency across all areas of AHA operations. The new software system has also allowed the AHA to continue managing operations during the COVID-19 pandemic, where many staff members have worked remotely, and the AHA office has remained closed to the public.
6. The AHA has expanded the Quality Assurance and program support function for the HCV program, which has allowed for greater program compliance and in-person training and support for HCV staff.
7. The AHA management and HCV program staff have participated in several in-person and online classes throughout the last 3 years through National Center for Housing Management, Nan McKay & Associates, and NAHRO.
8. The AHA has maintained a Standard Performer SEMAP Designation during all 5 years.
9. The AHA updated the briefing packet for new voucher holders to include additional information regarding available rental units, the housing search process, the portability process and other local and community resources for promoting self-sufficiency.

PART IX: VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT (VAWA): NOTIFICATION, DOCUMENTATION, CONFIDENTIALITY

16-IX.A. OVERVIEW

The Violence against Women Act of 2013 (VAWA) provides special protections for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking who are applying for or receiving assistance under the housing choice voucher (HCV) program. If your state or local laws provide greater protection for such victims, those laws apply in conjunction with VAWA.

In addition to definitions of key terms used in VAWA, this part contains general VAWA requirements and PHA policies in three areas: notification, documentation, and confidentiality.

Specific VAWA requirements and PHA policies are located primarily in the following sections: 3-I.C, “Family Breakup and Remaining Member of Tenant Family”; 3-III.G, “Prohibition against Denial of Assistance to Victims of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, and Stalking”; 10-I.A, “Allowable Moves”; 10-I.B, “Restrictions on Moves”; 12-II.E, “Terminations Related to Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, or Stalking”; and 12-II.F, “Termination Notice.”

As used in VAWA:

- The term bifurcate means, with respect to a public housing or Section 8 lease, to divide a lease as a matter of law such that certain tenants can be evicted or removed while the remaining family members’ lease and occupancy rights are allowed to remain intact.
- The term dating violence means violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:
 - The length of the relationship
 - The type of relationship
 - The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship
- The term domestic violence includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction receiving grant monies, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person’s acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction.
- The term affiliated individual means, with respect to a person:
 - A spouse, parent, brother or sister, or child of that individual, or an individual to whom that individual stands in the position or place of a parent; or
 - Any other individual, tenant or lawful occupant living in the household of the victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

- The term sexual assault means:
 - Any nonconsensual sexual act proscribed by federal, tribal, or state law, including when the victim lacks the capacity to consent
- The term stalking means:

To engage in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for his or her safety or the safety of others, or suffer substantial emotional distress.

The VAWA information provided to owners will consist of the notice in Exhibit 16-2 and a copy of form HUD-50066, Certification of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, and Stalking.

16-IX.D. DOCUMENTATION [24 CFR 5.2007]

A PHA presented with a claim for initial or continued assistance based on status as a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or criminal activity related to any of these forms of abuse may—but is not required to—request that the individual making the claim document the abuse. Any request for documentation must be in writing, and the individual must be allowed at least 14 business days after receipt of the request to submit the documentation. The PHA may extend this time period at its discretion. [24 CFR 5.2007(a)]

The individual may satisfy the PHA’s request by providing any one of the following three forms of documentation [24 CFR 5.2007(b)]:

- (1) A completed and signed HUD-approved certification form (HUD-50066, Certification of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, or Stalking), which must include the name of the perpetrator only if the name of the perpetrator is safe to provide and is known to the victim
- (2) A federal, state, tribal, territorial, or local police report or court record,
- (3) Documentation signed by a person who has assisted the victim in addressing domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking, or the effects of such abuse. This person may be an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider; an attorney; a mental health professional, or a medical professional. The person signing the documentation must attest under penalty of perjury to the person’s belief that the incidents in question are bona fide incidents of abuse. The victim must also sign the documentation.

The PHA may not require third-party documentation (forms 2 and 3) in addition to certification (form 1), except as specified below under “Conflicting Documentation,” nor may it require certification in addition to third-party documentation [VAWA final rule].

Attleboro Housing Authority Policy

Any request for documentation of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking will be in writing, will specify a deadline of 14 business days following receipt of the request, will describe the three forms of acceptable documentation, will provide explicit instructions on where and to whom the documentation must be submitted, and will state the consequences for failure to submit the documentation or request an extension in writing by the deadline.

The Attleboro Housing Authority may, in its discretion, extend the deadline for 10 business days. Any extension granted by the Attleboro Housing Authority will be in writing.

Conflicting Documentation [24 CFR 5.2007(e)]

In cases where the PHA receives conflicting certification documents from two or more members of a household, each claiming to be a victim and naming one or more of the other petitioning household members as the perpetrator, the PHA may determine which is the true victim by requiring each to provide acceptable third-party documentation, as described above (forms 2 and 3). The PHA must honor any court orders issued to protect the victim or to address the distribution of property.

Attleboro Housing Authority Policy

If presented with conflicting certification documents (two or more forms HUD-50066) from members of the same household, the Attleboro Housing Authority will attempt to determine which is the true victim by requiring each of them to provide third-party documentation in accordance with 24 CFR 5.2007e and by following any HUD guidance on how such determinations should be made.

Discretion to Require No Formal Documentation [24 CFR 5.2007(d)]

The PHA has the discretion to provide benefits to an individual based solely on the individual's statement or other corroborating evidence—i.e., without requiring formal documentation of abuse in accordance with 24 CFR 5.2007(b).

Attleboro Housing Authority Policy

If the Attleboro Housing Authority accepts an individual's statement or other corroborating evidence of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking, the Attleboro Housing Authority will document acceptance of the statement or evidence in the individual's file.

Failure to Provide Documentation [24 CFR 5.2007(c)]

In order to deny relief for protection under VAWA, a PHA must provide the individual requesting relief with a written request for documentation of abuse. If the individual fails to provide the documentation within 14 business days from the date of receipt, or such longer time as the PHA may allow, the PHA may deny relief for protection under VAWA.

16-IX.E. CONFIDENTIALITY [24 CFR 5.2007(b)(4)]

All information provided to the PHA regarding domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking, including the fact that an individual is a victim of such violence or stalking, must be retained in confidence. This means that the PHA (1) may not enter the information into any shared database, (2) may not allow employees or others to access the information unless they are explicitly authorized to do so and have a need to know the information for purposes of their work, and (3) may not provide the information to any other entity or individual, except to the extent that the disclosure is (a) requested or consented to by the individual in writing, (b) required for use in an eviction proceeding, or (c) otherwise required by applicable law.

Attleboro Housing Authority Policy

If disclosure is required for use in an eviction proceeding or is otherwise required by applicable law, the Attleboro Housing Authority will inform the victim before disclosure occurs so that safety risks can be identified and addressed.

EXHIBIT 16-1: SAMPLE NOTICE TO HOUSING CHOICE VOUCHER APPLICANTS AND PARTICIPANTS REGARDING THE VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT
(VAWA)

This sample notice was adapted from a notice prepared by the National Housing Law Project.

A federal law that went into effect in 2013 protects individuals who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. The name of the law is the Violence against Women Act, or “VAWA.” This notice explains your rights under VAWA.

Protections for Victims

If you are eligible for a Section 8 voucher, the housing authority cannot deny you rental assistance solely because you are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

If you are the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, you cannot be terminated from the Section 8 program or evicted based on acts or threats of violence committed against you. Also, criminal acts directly related to the domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking that are caused by a member of your household or a guest can’t be the reason for evicting you or terminating your rental assistance if you were the victim of the abuse.

Reasons You Can Be Evicted

You can be evicted and your rental assistance can be terminated if the housing authority or your landlord can show there is an actual and imminent (immediate) threat to other tenants or employees at the property if you remain in your housing. Also, you can be evicted and your rental assistance can be terminated for serious or repeated lease violations that are not related to the domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking committed against you. The housing authority and your landlord cannot hold you to a more demanding set of rules than it applies to participants who are not victims.

Removing the Abuser from the Household

Your landlord may split the lease to evict a tenant who has committed criminal acts of violence against family members or others, while allowing the victim and other household members to stay in the assisted unit. Also, the housing authority can terminate the abuser’s Section 8 rental assistance while allowing you to continue to receive assistance. If the landlord or housing authority chooses to remove the abuser, it may not take away the remaining tenants’ rights to the unit or otherwise punish the remaining tenants. In removing the abuser from the household, your landlord must follow federal, state, and local eviction procedures.

Moving to Protect Your Safety

The housing authority may permit you to move and still keep your rental assistance, even if your current lease has not yet expired. The housing authority may require that you be current on your rent or other obligations in the housing choice voucher program. The housing authority may ask you to provide proof that you are moving because of incidences of abuse.

Proving That You Are a Victim of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, or Stalking

The housing authority and your landlord can ask you to prove or “certify” that you are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. The housing authority or your landlord must give you at least 14 business days (i.e., Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays do not count) to provide this proof. The housing authority and your landlord are free to extend the deadline. There are three ways you can prove that you are a victim:

- Complete the certification form given to you by the housing authority or your landlord. The form will ask for your name, the name of your abuser, the abuser’s relationship to you, the date, time, and location of the incident of violence, and a description of the violence. You are only required to provide the name of the abuser if it is safe to provide and you know their name.
- Provide a statement from a victim service provider, attorney, or mental health professional or medical professional who has helped you address incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. The professional must state that he or she believes that the incidents of abuse are real. Both you and the professional must sign the statement, and both of you must state that you are signing “under penalty of perjury.”
- Provide a police or court record, such as a protective order.

Additionally, at its discretion, the housing authority can accept a statement or other evidence provided by the applicant or participant.

If you fail to provide one of these documents within the required time, the landlord may evict you, and the housing authority may terminate your rental assistance.

Confidentiality

The housing authority and your landlord must keep confidential any information you provide about the violence against you, unless:

- You give written permission to the housing authority or your landlord to release the information.
- Your landlord needs to use the information in an eviction proceeding, such as to evict your abuser.
- A law requires the housing authority or your landlord to release the information.

Additionally, at its discretion, the housing authority can accept a statement or other evidence provided by the applicant or participant.

If release of the information would put your safety at risk, you should inform the housing authority and your landlord.

VAWA and Other Laws

VAWA does not limit the housing authority’s or your landlord’s duty to honor court orders about access to or control of the property. This includes orders issued to protect a victim and orders dividing property among household members in cases where a family breaks up.

VAWA does not replace any federal, state, or local law that provides greater protection for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Definitions

For purposes of determining whether a participant may be covered by VAWA, the following list of definitions applies:

VAWA defines domestic violence to include felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by any of the following:

- A current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim
- A person with whom the victim shares a child in common
- A person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner
- A person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction receiving grant monies
- Any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction

VAWA defines dating violence as violence committed by a person (1) who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim AND (2) where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:

- The length of the relationship
- The type of relationship
- The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship

VAWA defines sexual assault as "any nonconsensual sexual act proscribed by Federal, tribal, or State law, including when the victim lacks capacity to consent" (42 U.S.C. 13925(a)).

VAWA defines stalking as engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for his or her safety or the safety of others, or suffer substantial emotional distress.

EXHIBIT 16-2: SAMPLE NOTICE TO HOUSING CHOICE VOUCHER OWNERS AND MANAGERS REGARDING THE VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT (VAWA)

This sample notice was adapted from a notice prepared by the National Housing Law Project.

A federal law that went into effect in 2013 protects individuals who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking. The name of the law is the Violence against Women Act, or “VAWA.” This notice explains your obligations under VAWA.

Protections for Victims

You cannot refuse to rent to an applicant solely because he or she or has been is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

You cannot evict a tenant who is or has been the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking based on acts or threats of violence committed against the victim. Also, criminal acts directly related to the domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking that are caused by a household member or guest cannot be cause for evicting the victim of the abuse.

Permissible Evictions

You can evict a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking if you can demonstrate that there is an actual and imminent (immediate) threat to other tenants or employees at the property if the victim is not evicted. Also, you may evict a victim for serious or repeated lease violations that are not related to the domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. You cannot hold a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to a more demanding standard than you hold tenants who are not victims.

Removing the Abuser from the Household

You may bifurcate (split) the lease to evict a tenant who has committed criminal acts of violence against family members or others, while allowing the victim and other household members to stay in the unit. If you choose to remove the abuser, you may not take away the remaining tenants’ rights to the unit or otherwise punish the remaining tenants. In removing the abuser from the household, you must follow federal, state, and local eviction procedures.

Certification of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault, or Stalking

If a tenant asserts VAWA’s protections, you can ask the tenant to certify that he or she is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. You are not required to demand official documentation and may rely upon the victim’s statement alone. If you choose to request certification, you must do so in writing and give the tenant at least 14 business days to provide documentation. You are free to extend this deadline. A tenant can certify that he or she is a victim by providing any one of the following three documents:

- A completed, signed HUD-approved certification form. The most recent form is HUD-50066. This form is available at the housing authority or online at http://portal.hud.gov/hudportal/HUD?src=/program_offices/administration/hudclips/forms/hud5.
- A statement from a victim service provider, attorney, or medical professional who has helped the victim address incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. The professional must state that he or she believes that the incidents of abuse are real. Both the victim and the professional must sign the statement under penalty of perjury.

- A police or court record, such as a protective order or administrative record.

If the tenant fails to provide one of these documents within 14 business days, you may evict the tenant if authorized by otherwise applicable law and lease provisions.

Confidentiality

You must keep confidential any information a tenant provides to certify that he or she is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. You cannot enter the information into a shared database or reveal it to outside entities unless:

- The tenant provides written permission releasing the information.
- The information is required for use in an eviction proceeding, such as to evict the abuser.
- Release of the information is otherwise required by law.

The victim should inform you if the release of the information would put his or her safety at risk.

VAWA and Other Laws

VAWA does not limit your obligation to honor court orders regarding access to or control of the property. This includes orders issued to protect the victim and orders dividing property among household members in cases where a family breaks up.

VAWA does not replace any federal, state, or local law that provides greater protection for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

 - Adoption of a site-based waiting list would not violate any court order or settlement agreement or be inconsistent with a pending complaint brought by HUD;
 - The PHA shall take reasonable measures to assure that such a waiting list is consistent with affirmatively furthering fair housing;
